Cellcom Israel Ltd.

Immediate report dated January 15, 2024

Subject: A judgment approving a compromise settlement in a request for approval of a class action against the Company

Further to what was stated in Section 25.1 of Chapter A of the Company's periodic report for 2022, in connection with negotiations for a compromise held by the parties in a request for approval as a class action filed against the Company in the district court, in which it is claimed that the Company charged its customers for third-party content services illegally, the Company updates that the aforementioned settlement was approved, at a negligible amount for the Company.
