Cellcom Israel Ltd.

Immediate report dated January 2, 2024

Subject: Request for approval of a class action against the Company

The Company updates that on January 2, 2024, it received a request for approval of a class action, filed against it and against other cellular operators, to the Central District Court ("the Request"). In the application, it is claimed that the subscribers of the Company's kosher route were blocked from dialing certain phone numbers, illegally and contrary to the instructions of the Ministry of Communications. In the request, it was stated that the amount of the claim is over NIS 3 million, but in the absence of accurate data, it cannot be accurately estimated. The company is studying the details of the request and cannot, at this stage, assess its chances.
