Cellcom Israel Ltd. (the "Company")

Immediate report dated August 7, 2025

Subject: Prohibition on Charging Standing Order Fees

Further to what was stated in Section 1 in Chapter A of the company's Q1 2025 report regarding the publication of the Communications Regulations (Telecommunications and Broadcasting) (General Permit for Providing Telecommunications Services) (Amendment No. 2), 2025 (the "Amendment"), according to which, among other things, a licensed provider (holder of a license or registered in the registry, as these terms are defined in the Communications Law (Telecommunications and Broadcasting), 1982) shall not charge a private subscriber a fee for payment by standing order for debiting a bank account, the company updates that the said amendment will come into effect six (instead of three) months from the date of publication.
